

IRELAND

YOUR TICKET TO REAL WORLD EXPERIENCES IN THE GATEWAY TO EUROPE

Dublin ranks third on a list of most successful cities for innovation, livability and capacity to reinvent.

AMERICAN COLLEGE DUBLIN

1 Merrion Square, Dublin, Ireland
302.645.9554

admissions@acdireland.edu
www.iamu.edu

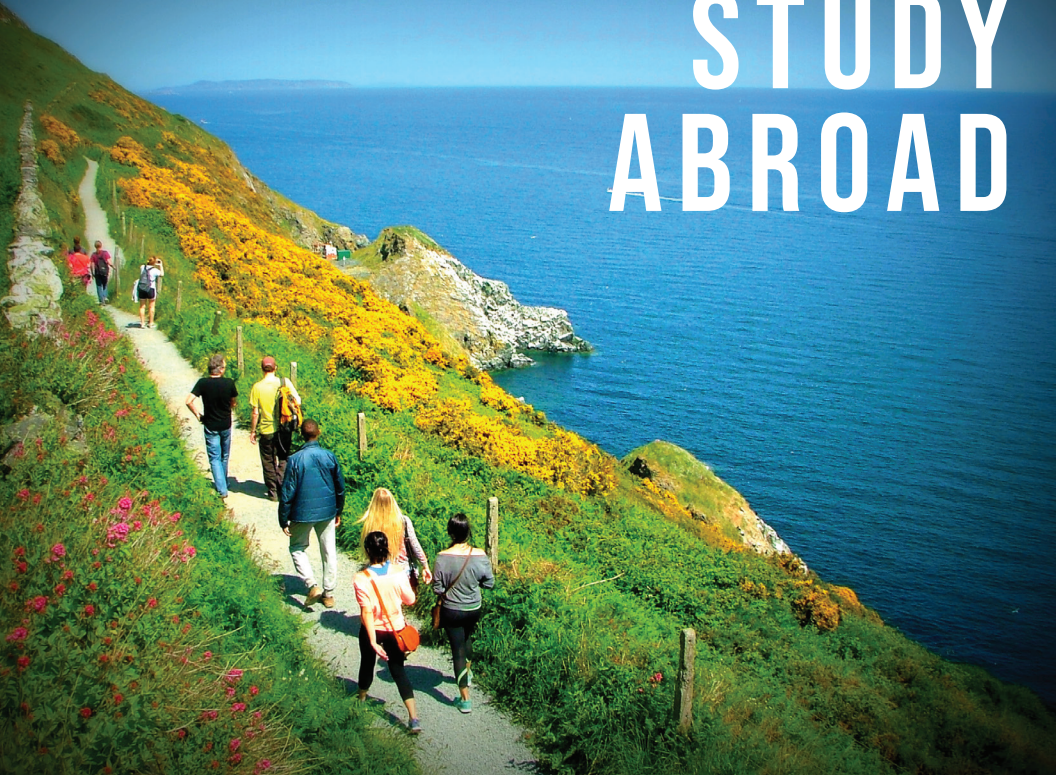

American College Dublin is a constituent college of Irish American University.

Ad astra per angusta

STUDY ABROAD

American College Dublin

IRELAND

PROGRAMS

American College Dublin is a private, not-for-profit institution of higher learning, accredited in the U.S. and Ireland. Choose from a variety of high quality courses, including international business, liberal arts and performing arts. American College Dublin allows students to experience the best of both worlds by providing an intimate, curated education in the backdrop of a dynamic, international city. ACD offers three, competitively priced study abroad programs to suit your length of stay:

4 WEEK TERM (SUMMER)

6 credits

8 WEEK TERM (SUMMER)

12 Credits

SPRING/FALL TERM

15 credits

Tuition, accommodations, excursions, and transportation to and from the airport are included in all study abroad packages. Daily breakfast is provided. Additional meal plans available.

Apply directly at www.iamu.edu

or email ACD at admissions@acdireland.edu
for more information.

WHY ACD?

Located in the childhood home of Oscar Wilde, American College Dublin provides a truly one-of-a-kind study abroad experience in the middle of historic Dublin. The ACD campus is steps away from Merrion Square, as well as numerous cafes, pubs, shops and museums.

WHY DUBLIN?

LOCATION AND ACCESSIBILITY

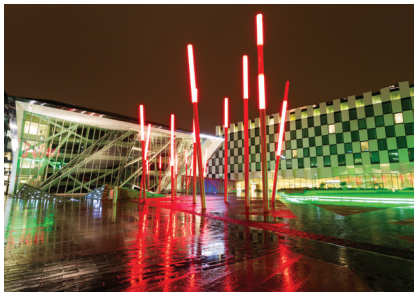

While the city is very walkable, the public transportation system is also well-equipped to take you around the city and throughout the rest of Ireland. Dublin is also known as the Gateway to Europe, with short flights available to those looking to spend a long weekend exploring the rest of the continent.

CULTURE

Dublin ranks as one of the world's greatest cities for arts and culture. The lively city boasts a vibrant food, music and performing arts scenes and is renowned for its pubs and Irish dancing. Packed with endless green spaces and Georgian architecture, Dublin is brimming with character and beauty. Take a weekend trip outside the city to explore Ireland's medieval castles and other wonders.

PEOPLE

The Irish have a longstanding reputation for their kindness and genuine hospitality. The city has a large, diverse student population and a great social scene to explore. For a large city, Dublin is known to be quite safe.

WEEKEND EXCURSIONS

South

Cobh, Cork City,
Rock of Cashel,
Blarney Castle, Ring of Kerry, Killarney Park,
Torc Waterfall,
Skellig Michael

North

Carrick-a-Rede Bridge,
Belfast Peace Walls,
Titanic Experience,
Belfast Empire Music
Hall, Giant's Causeway,
Bushmill's Distillery

West

County Clare, Galway
City, The Burren, Cliffs
of Moher cruise, Aran Islands, Inis Oirr, scenic flight to Connemara

Weekend and daily excursions vary based on availability and may cost an additional fee.*